

STAFF DEVELOPMENT and CONTINUING EDUCATIONRILA 2017 ConferenceKaren Horn khorn@clamsnet.org

Sturgis Library, Barnstable, MA

The following is a list of current websites for online training for library staff. Some are for library specific skills and others include general knowledge, technology, software and other topics. Self-paced learning, webinars, archived webinars, online learning and other platforms are included. Some of these sites offer free training and others offer training for a fee. Some offer Certificates of Completion and others award CEU credits.

OVERDRIVE	http://partners.overdrive.com/learning-center	free
Mass. Library Systems (MLS)	http://www.masslibsystem.org	free
Lynda.com through MLS	http://www.masslibsystem.org/continuing-education/lynda	free
WebJunction	http://www.webjunction.org	free
Library of Congress cataloging	http://www.loc.gov/catworkshop	free
USC web searching tutorial	http://www.sc.edu/beaufort/library/pages/bones/bones.shtml	free
GCF Global	http://www.gcflearnfree.org	free
Idaho Basic Library Education	http://libraries.idaho.gov/page/able	free
Lyrasis through MLS	http://www.masslibsystem.org/mls-lyrasis-courses	$$
ALA online learning	http://www.ala.org/onlinelearning	$$
ALA e learning	http://www.alaeditions.org/workshops	$$
INFOPEOPLE	https://infopeople.org	$$
Idaho Commission for Libraries	http://libraries.idaho.gov/page/able or sable	free
Booklist	www.booklistonline.com	free
Library Juice Academy	http://libraryjuiceacademy.com	$$
Novelist	http://support.ebsco.com/novelist	free
youtube	https://www.youtube.com	free
TED talks	https://ted.com/talks	free
Khan academy	https://www.khanacademy.org/	free
Tech boomers	https://techboomers.com/	free